Please dress smartly. Any smart dress is acceptable but ideally hunt dress: plaited mane (tail optional), tweed jackets or waistcoats if hot, cream jodhpurs and gloves. Up to standard body protector or air jacket is allowed. Horse boots and martingales or breastplates may be worn.

There is no catering on site so please bring your own refreshments. There will not be a photographer in attendance.

Please be advised that me or an assistant may be taking some videos or pictures to use to promote the clinics. We may also purchase photographer pictures. If you would not like to be included, please let me know.
